DEDICATION

We have been together for four memorable years. Together we have pondered over Shakespeare, struggled through algebra, cheered our teams to victory, shared in the "80 events," and formed lasting friendships. We have met triumphs and failures. Through these experiences we've established a closeness and spirit within our class which influences our school.

Seniors, this book is dedicated to you as an expression of our appreciation. Thanks for being so great!

THE PAPAL VISIT OF POPE JOHN PAUL II

In early October, 1979, our most Holy Father, Pope John Paul II, made his first papal visit to the United States. Millions of people cheered his arrival, were inspired by his messages, and were awed by his presence. The crowds consisted of devout clergy and religious, jubilant laity, and fervent youth. Our Viking Marching Band represented Central Catholic and the city of Allentown.

Thank you, Holy Father, for elevating the spirit of our nation!

Diocesan Directors

Encouraging spiritual education, Bishop Joseph McShea and the Reverend Monsignor Raymond J. Leichner provide the necessities for Central Catholic's student body to improve themselves both mentally and spiritually.

The diocesan staff, under the direction of Dr. James Cusimono, assures Catholic training by making school not only an educational institution, but a community of discovery and growth as well.

Active Administration

Mr. James Hodrick continued his progressive role as principal. Through his outstanding leadership ability and support, the Central Catholic family has been able to reach higher dimensions.

Mr. Hodrick's counterparts include Reverend John Denburger and Mr. William F. Tielman. Fr. Denburger, who fulfilled the position of Vice-Principal and Head of Religious Affairs, provided activities for the Centralites to express their spiritual involvement. Mr. Tielman proved to be a valuable administrative assistant and acted as the mediator between students and administration.

Disciplinarians

There were a few changes in the discipline staff this past year. Sr. Judith Cleary has taken the position of Dean of Students. Assisting Sr. Judith is a new member of the faculty, Mr. Carl Persichini. Combining their efforts, they have maintained suitable behavior in the school environment.

Mrs. Sylvia Spirk kept the records organized and added a welcomed smile.

“Central” Services

Students plagued with term papers and research topics found consolation in Sisters Ann Nederostek and Louis Bertrand who made available endless streams of information and library resources.

Mrs. Thelma Schmidt, director of the Attendance Office, maintained accurate records during the course of the year.

With much dedication and effort, Mr. John Darragh, our new Public Relations manager, devoted his schedule to fund raising yet retained his teaching position.

Counselors Advise Students

The Guidance Office combined the services of three counselors, Mrs. Mary Miller, Guidance Director, Sr. Miriam Patrice, and Sr. Kathleen Moran, to assist Seniors as well as underclassmen in choosing suitable vocations.

Mrs. Kitty Miller, Guidance Secretary, was helpful in preparing student's transcripts and keeping an air of orderliness about the office.

Service With a Smile

The four women responsible for keeping the main office in continuous order are Miss Margaret Heilman, executive secretary, Mrs. Joan Liles, Mrs. Dolores Buchman, and a new member of the office personnel, Mrs. Ginnie Wilcox. These dedicated secretaries provide the Central community with the utmost of service.

Efficient Employees

Central could not function without the dedication of many efficient employees.

Mr. Pete Krah and Mr. Leo Stelzman have contributed their time and skills to benefit the appearance and operation of our school.

Behind the scenes in the cafeteria are Mrs. Jean Jacobs and Mrs. Dorothy Wertman. These devoted ladies perform many duties such as stocking the machines and assisting students.

Doctors' Duties

The medical staff adequately assumed their responsibility to keep Centralites well. Assuring good health for the students were Dr. Robert Luber, nurse Norma Barosky, and dental hygienist, Mrs. Regina Kelechava.

UNDERCLASSEN

Juniors Face Responsibilities

The Junior class, under the fine leadership of class officers, Joseph Sedler, Michael Kuntz, Amy Peterman and Jennifer Sherry, has finally earned the well-deserved title of "upperclassmen." These future leaders of the student body, with the guidance of Sister Grace Steckel, showed dedication and enthusiasm as they experienced new schedule changes, more responsibilities and serious college decisions.

Sophomores Grow in Unity

Finally accepted as a part of Central's environment, the sophomore class, proved itself as an enthusiastic and dedicated class. With the assistance of class advisor, Mr. John Rosenberger, the experienced class officers, Patrick Browne, Lori Smith, Michelle Spinosa and Martie Breshock, helped the sophomores realize their need to grow in unity with the rest of Central's population.

Freshmen Adjust to Central Life

Under the support of the class officers, John Kucharczuk, Molly Haggerty, Catherine Jaccodine, Megan Fitzpatrick and the advice of Father Stanley Sosnowski, the newly welcomed freshman class became well adjusted to their unfamiliar environment at Central. While trying to deal with their former "senior" status in grade school, they encountered with every passing moment another facet of high school life.

Quiet

The romantic setting of St. Elizabeth's social hall provided the perfect atmosphere for the Junior Prom. "Even in the Quietest Moments" by Supertramp set the mood for the evening. Music was furnished by Gene Werley, a local disc jockey. The climax of the Prom was the crowning of the King and Queen, Brian Lewis and Kate Fitzpatrick.

Moments

We Gather Together

Rockne Hall and Masson auditorium have become familiar settings to all Centralites because of the numerous school and social activities that have taken place in them. Dances, assemblies, speeches, liturgies, and sports activities are just a few of the many memorable moments shared in these buildings.

The music, echoing throughout the halls, ranged from Church hymns to rock. The many performances presented in Rockne and Masson consisted of amateur acts, such as the Talent Show, a well-produced Broadway Show, Musicales, or Spring Concert. The assemblies gathered us together and reminded us of our school unity. Pep rallies ignited spirit among the students and contributed to the undying school spirit. Thunderous cheers of Viking pride reigned during sports activities. This constant feeling of Viking power and pride endured even after the activity stopped.

We entered these hallowed halls four years ago admiring the traditions left by past graduates. We leave these halls hopefully contributing a small piece of our pride and love for our Alma Mater!

"The King and I"

Masson stage came alive with the production of this year's Broadway show, "The King and I". Artistic, musical, and acting abilities were combined by talented students to offer a delightful evening of entertainment. Heading this year's cast were Matt Minnetola, Patty McLoughlin, Michael Anthony, Maureen Burke, Michelle Kohn, Bryan Hoffstetter, and Rich Lichtenwalner.

Long hours of dedication from Sr. Aloysius, Mr. John Bookholt, Fr. Paul Masiar, and all others involved were essential to the success of the show.

Music Makers

In keeping with the tradition of spring, the music department presented a most successful spring concert. The stage band, orchestra, and choral groups combined for a delightful evening of musical entertainment. This sensational performance was the result of long student practices and superb direction by Sr. Aloysius and Mr. John Bookholt.

Vikings Excel in Stamina, Strength, Speed

Endurance and perseverance were the main characteristics developed by the cross country runners. Under the direction of Mr. Edward Zelonis, the Viking runners succeeded in displaying these qualities. Fairly new to EPL competition, the team finished the season with a respectable record.

UPPER LEFT: The female members of the team, Tanya Kotran and Debbie McCarthy, eagerly participate.

Dedication on the Diamond

Determined female athletes once again headed outdoors to launch the 1980 softball season. The Vikettes, under the direction of Mr. Richard Demmel, put their best foot forward in order to maintain an exciting season.

Batter Up

The sluggers, under the leadership of Mr. Tom Shive, combined their determination and talents in order to accomplish a successful season. Three returning lettermen, Mike Green, Mike Lewis, and Mark Csensits, showed a powerful defense throughout the season.

SENIORS

Central Students

The Class of 1980 will be remembered for the dedication and spirit of its leaders. The senior class officers formulated the theme of "80 Events for the Class of 1980" and their endeavors made the year unforgettable.

Many senior students were outstanding in their scholastic achievements. Twenty students are recognized here for their top academic ranking.

Senior Class Officers: Mary Neupauer — Secretary, Anita Oehmke — Vice President, Peter Waldron — President, Elizabeth Poplawski — Treasurer.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In May 1979, the 1980 edition of Glen Echoes was just a dream. We wish to extend sincere thanks to some very special people who have made this yearbook no longer a dream, but rather a most successful production. We express our grateful appreciation to Ms. Joanne Stanley, our yearbook advisor, for her dedication and productive ideas; to the R. J. Harwick photographers for their patience and "creatively different" photography; to Mr. Edward Patrick, our representative from Taylor Publishing Co., for his helpful hints and assistance; to the administration, faculty, and students of Central Catholic for the understanding, cooperation, and support; and especially to each other for our loyalty, frustration, and determination throughout the year.

Rudy,
MAN, WE MADE IT.
ALWAYS REMEMBER MOLSON'S CLASSES → YOU BROWN!
I hope you enjoy the shore, as much as I'll enjoy Florida
Good Luck in future, Joe "Buddha" Neil
437-3133

Jim,
Thanks for the times I was in need and you came through. (You know what I taking about!) It sure was appreciated. Keep on doing those railroad lines and maybe I can return the favor. Hope to see you at the shore. Love, Vic

How many times will Jim get busted before he is <sup>land</sup> to rest?
The answer is

1980

I hope not but best of luck anyway!
Your friend "Rich"
